It was during this period, from 1928-1939, that Ford lost their dominance of the American tractor market. Owing to the higher cost of importing Ford farm tractors from Ireland, and then Britain, and to the development of newer models by American competitors that made the Fordson look obsolete, Ford's market share slipped, eventually to a low of five percent.

Farmall was a model name and later a brand name for tractors manufactured by the American company International Harvester (IH). The Farmall name was usually presented as McCormick-Deering Farmall and later McCormick Farmall in the evolving brand architecture of IH.. Farmalls were general-purpose tractors. Their origins were as row-crop tractors, a category that they helped establish and in ...
